

Lil' Tinker

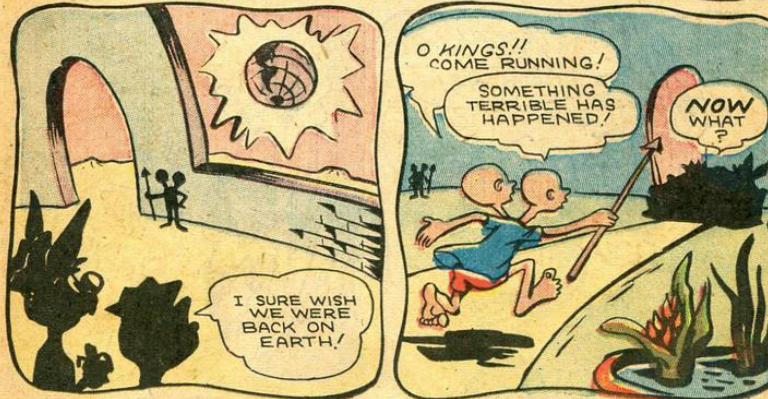

GOSH, HOPPY!
I DON'T LIKE THIS IDEA OF BEING JOINT KINGS!

The main panel shows Lil' Tinker, a small grey rabbit wearing a yellow crown and a green tunic, sitting on a throne. Hoppy, a larger grey rabbit wearing a yellow tunic and purple pants, is reclining on the same throne. They are surrounded by a banquet table with various dishes, including a large roasted bird, a bowl of fruit, and a bottle of wine. In the background, two small, bald, blue-skinned Martians are visible, one holding a spear. The scene is set in a palace with arched doorways and a sunset sky.

The bottom panels show the Martians' reaction. In the first panel, a Martian runs away from a large, jagged hole in the wall that reveals a globe. In the second panel, two Martians are running away from a dark, shadowy area, one holding a spear. The scene is set in a palace with arched doorways and a sunset sky.
